PROFILE

John Calverley (B.Mus) has performed around the world with various music and dance groups, playing a wide variety of ethnic folk, jazz, pop, and fiddle styles. He has also composed and arranged music for ethnic dance groups, modern dance, fusion productions and art shows.

He has been involved at the national level in Old Tyme fiddling, and placed among the top 11 in 2000 and 2005 when invited to compete at the Canadian Grand Masters Fiddling Competition at Nepean, Ontario. John also had the pleasure of recording Calvin Volrath's music for the Vancouver 2010 Winter Olympics opening ceremonies on 'Rhythms of the Fall' medley and backing tracks for Ashley MacIsaac.

John has been teaching violin for over 20 years. He teaches both in his home studio and also at St. Paul for the North Eastern Music Association (www.nemamusic.com)

John has performed with Alfie Zappacosta, the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, the Strathcona String Quartet, Mercury Opera, Lisa Hewitt, Vinok Worldance, The Dryland Band, and many other pop, rock and folk acts.
